

CEU UCH DAYTON UNIVERSITY

Double Master's Degree in Law

CEU | *Universidad
Cardenal Herrera*

University of Dayton

The international study program with Dayton University is a Master's Degree in Law.

The online LL.M. Program, thanks to its network of international contacts, helps those lawyers who decide to take the bar exam to practice law in some U.S. states. The program allows its students to serve in global entities based in Spain and the USA that work with foreign countries or in entities based in any other country in the world that have interests and operate in Spain and the USA.

WHAT IS IT ABOUT?

It consists of 30 credits that are developed over 12 online courses divided into subjects focused on the bar exam: Professional Responsibility, Business Relations, Evidence, Real Estate, Civil Crimes, Inheritance and Wills, Civil Procedure, Constitutional Law, Criminal Law and Procedure, and Contracts of Sale and Purchase.

Although the courses are offered 100% online and asynchronously, the professors are in direct contact with the students through tutorials and platforms such as Zoom.

The 12 courses will be given during three semesters starting in January, May and August.

WHO CAN APPLY?

Students and alumni of the Master's Degree in Law.

TIMELINE

Duration?

An online program offering 12 courses with a total of 30 credits to be offered over three semesters:

- August to November
- January to April
- May to August

There is no deadline for obtaining the degree.

1 Admission Process

2 Validations

3 Issuance of the title

CONTACT

For any questions or other information please contact: international.programs@uchceu.es

CEU | *Universidad
Cardenal Herrera*

International Programs